Contract Type	The types of a contract. We support 236 contract types out of the box. The top five most common are: Service Agreements, Letter Agreements, Amendments, Non Disclosure Agreements, and Statements of Work.
Title	The title of a document (from the text of the contract, not the filename).
Counterparty	Contracting parties for the agreement.
Internal Party	If a list of internal entities is provided, Evisort can separate the Internal Party name from the Counterparty field above.
Effective Date	The effective date of the agreement.
Start Date	Start date of the term of the agreement, often (but not always) equal to the effective date.
Term Length	The term length of the agreement (expiration date - start date).
Expiration Date	The initial expiration date of the contract (before any potential renewal).
Renewal Type	Three Options: Automatic: contract renews automatically after expiration, Option to Renew: contract doesn't renew automatically but the option exists for one party (not by mutual agreement), Manual: automatic renewal is either explicitly forbidden or not mentioned.
Number of Renewals	The number of renewals available if the renewal type is automatic or optional.
Renewal Term	The term length for a renewal if the renewal type is automatic or optional.
Renewal Notice Period	The advance notice to give to opt out of renewal, if the renewal type is automatic or optional, in number of days.
Upcoming Expiration Date	The upcoming expiration date from today, if there's a renewal.
Payment Term	The payment term(s) of the contract, in number of days.
Language	The language of a contract.
Text Quality	The OCR quality (high, medium, low) for English contract only.
Liability Cap	The cap on liability in the limitation of liability clause(s) broken down into the following fields: Liability Cap Text: the text surrounding the liability cap language in the limitation of liability clause, Liability Cap Type: the type of liability cap, Amount Paid: relative to the total amount paid in the contract, Fixed Amount: an explicit, fixed cap, Liability Cap Multiplier: if the type is "Amount Paid" the multiplier applies to the amount paid to calculate the liability cap, Liability Cap Amount: if explicit, the total liability cap amount, Liability Cap Currency: if explicit, the total liability cap currency.
Governing Law	The governing law state (in the U.S.) or country (if outside the U.S.).
Executed or Not	Whether the agreement contains at least one signature or no signatures can be hand written or electronic.
